146846-1001

Royal Academy of Music Library

Early 49 .131

ARABELLA

A favorite NEW Song Compoſed by Mr. R. Chapman

DUBLIN. Publiſhed by HIME at his MUSICAL CIRCULATING LIBRARY 34 College Green.

Andante

Say have you ſeen my A_RA_BEL the Ca_le_do_nian Maid, Or heard the Youths of Scotia tell where A_RA_BEL is ſtray'd.

The dam_ſel is of An_gel mein with ſad and down_caſt Eyes_: the Shep_herds call her Sor_row's Queen ſo pen_ſive_ly ſhe ſighs.

But why thoſe ſighs ſo ſadly ſwell,
Or why her tears ſo flow,
In vain they preſs the lovely Girl,
This inmate cauſe to know;
E'er reaſon form'd her tender mind,
The Virgin learnt to love,
Compaſsion taught her to be kind,
Deceit ſhe was above.

And had not Wars terriffic voice,
Forbid the Nuptial bands,
E'er now had Sandy been her choice,
And Hymen join'd their hands;
But ſince the Sword of War is ſheath'd,
And Peace reſumes her charms,
My ev'ry joy is now beqeath'd,
To ARABELLA's Arms.

Flute or Guitar.

130
Royal Academy of Music Library